Okay, let's meet up later..
Hm..
This pimple..
How dare you appear today of all days and destroy my handsomeness
Hey, Bok
Er..
I need to hide pimples, do you know how to put on men's make-up?

There's a thing called a 'concealer'
Take it and brush lightly on top of your pimples and it'll probably hide it.
Men's make-up? I don't know much...
Isn't it just drawing on some eyebrows to make it neater?
Oh, and I guess you can moisturize your lip by using lipbalm.
By the way
You aren't using my make-up, are you?
